Nb. I sent you photos - Christmas greetings in English, Russian, and Indonesia (with our parishioners), and on the Christmas day (25 December 2014) after Mass i have to work (clear the way) because that day was heavy snow fall - so that was my white Christmas from Moscow.

PREPARE THE WAY

Matthew 3:3

A WAY ALL THE WAY TO THE WAY

Dear Confrere and Comrades,

The Advent call of Isaiah to “prepare a way” (Is 40:3) apparently does not resonate with the prophetic prescription, “This is the way, walk in it” (Is 30:21), or “... that we may walk in his path” (Is 2:3)! For, if Providence has provided a prudent Broadway, why should anyone prepare another way anyway?

Christmas is the answer to this conundrum. For Teilhard de Chardin, the saintly Jesuit scientist, the incarnation of the Immanuel is the indubitable event of convergence of humanity with the divinity. It is the magnificent manifestation of the merging point of God's grace and human response.

In order to arrive at my destination, my byway has to lead me to the Highway. Jesus is the Way. My way has to lead me to and merge with his Way. My way has to become his Way. I pray that your holiness and happiness achieve their altitude at Christmas and always. I wish that his concerns become our concerns, his convictions ours and his Ways our ways.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Yours in the Divine Word,

Fr. Xavier Thirukumbam SVD
Provincial Superior INC.

Dear Friend,

In Rev. 3:20 we read “Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him and he with me.” I am sure during the Holy Season of Advent; we have done all the external and internal preparations: decorations, cribs, carols, sweets cakes, personal conversion etc. to open the door of our life to welcome Jesus and allow him to be born in our hearts. Thus celebration of Christmas becomes a rich encounter with Christ, an experience of Joy, Peace and Love – the experience of God with us.

Sometimes it can happen that the Jesus who is inside us keeps on knocking at our door to be let out, to come out and we refuse to open the door due to the fear of insecurity or fear of encountering the people whom Jesus wants to meet personally through us. Let us not keep Jesus locked in our hearts, rather help him to reach out to the maximum by accompanying him. Naturally as we celebrate Christmas Jesus who is in us wants to meet the poor, marginalized, migrants, children on the streets, sick and suffering etc. Shall we open the doors of our hearts and walk with Jesus in meeting such people around us.

Let our community/parish make it a point to reach out to people in humble service and peaceful dialogue of the Manger; let every school and college continue to spread peace and joy through the arm of imparting and receiving knowledge in ‘spiritual conversations’; let each of our social centres reach out to the needy and the marginalized to meet with the migrant and refugee; let our retreat centres invite people of all cultures and religions to contemplate the immense humility, deep simplicity and the profound joy of the Holy Family through the new born Babe; let us in the process of becoming human beings – walk the road to the crib, seeking and finding the Child – vulnerable and yet available to all.

I sincerely wish you all a Very Happy Christmas and Grace filled New Year 2015!!!

Fr. Luvis Ronald Pereira SVD
