

Diaconate Ordination In Bratislava Slovakia

October 13th, 2018 was a special day for the SVD formation house in Bratislava, Slovakia. On this day three confreres – Frt. Juraj Begany, Frt. Matej Reiner and Frt. Donie Sequeira – received the Order of Diaconate from Jan Graubner, Archbishop of Olomouc, Czech Republic. During his homily, the bishop emphasized the first and the ultimate mission of the deacons that is to serve all people with love. The Archbishop also invited them to administer the sacraments and other liturgical services to convey God's grace to the people and enable them to grow in faith and God's love. Around 50 priests, SVDs and diocesan, as well as more than 400 relatives and friends witnessed this moment of grace. After the liturgy, all were invited to continue the sharing with something to drink and to eat.
