

Help from Taiwan to Paraguay

Carlos Cesar Lopez Ysasi, the mission secretary of SIN province, is living in Taiwan. He organized a fundraising mostly at his parish - Immaculate Heart of Mary, Sanchung to help the poor during the pandemic. He sent the money to the parish of St. Joseph Church, Limpio, in the archdiocese of Asuncion, Paraguay.

The first-time instalment was spent in organizing meals for people in need and the second-time instalment was used mainly to buy food packets. The volunteers prepared these packets and distributed them to the needy. The help was extended to more than 150 families.

The people of Taiwan were willing to share with the needy people and this brought joy and satisfaction to the donors and the receivers.
